LOCAL

This evening's train will be hour and fifteen minutes late.
Taylor, Boile and Gariepy moving into their new offices in Gariepy block today.

The Prince Albert Advocate says that the time is not ripe for assuming provincial autonomy.

Geo. Robertson, of Robertson Bros., hardware merchants, Vegreville, has been in Edmonton the past couple of days.

The meteorological service contemplates issuing a weather bulletin throughout the Northwest Territories beginning in July next.

William Jessops, of Jessops and Song, Shelford, England, has completed arrangements for starting in Canada a plant for the manufacture of fine steel.

Rev. Mr. Walsh, English minister in the Mackenzie River district, purchased a half dozen small hogs from Williamson Bros. and took them north with him. It is said that these are the first hogs to be sent so far north.

The local enthusiasts are trying to round up a lacrosse twelve to go to Leduc and play a friendly match with the League lacrosse team this evening.
The boys will be treated to a smoke and dances after the match.

We have been enjoying beautiful, bright, sunny weather for the past few weeks. It is the true Alberta weather of which we delight to boast.
Farmers from every district report crops further advanced than ever before at this time of the year.

The exhibition management reports that final arrangements have been made for the program of the monster celebration in Edmonton on June 30th July 1st and 2nd. Everything is in excellent condition. Crowds and crowds of people are coming from down the line. The whole countryside will be in town, and we will have an exhibition vastly superior to anything ever before attempted in Edmonton.

—Harry Poser, rancher on the Ver-million, has been spending the last few days in Edmonton. He drove up to Edmonton with his wife and family and returned by raft today. He took a raft of several tons of provisions and a large quantity of machinery including saws, delivery rakes, and hay loaders. On another raft besides a quantity of supplies he loaded his team and rig. They will land at St.
Paul's crossing, from which place he will drive overland, about seven miles, to his ranch.

—Grading on the C. N. R. here is being pushed ahead rapidly. For the past two or three days the men have been grading along the side of the bank south west of the Hudson Bay Fort. The right of way has been cleared and the brush burned up along the Hudson Bay grounds and into the Great Forest. With the exception of the right of way over Win. Easton's property the roadbed is ready for the rails from the E. Y. & P. station to a point on the river bank opposite Walter's mill.

PERSONAL.

G. G. Mann, Indian agent at Saddle Lake, is in Edmonton today.

X. Sander, Inspector of customs, Calgary, is in Edmonton today.

E. Much, W. P. Roger and Charlie York have returned to Edmonton from a trip to the Barricology and Battleford.

Accident On C P R.

The following dispatch from Rat-Portage to the Free Press explains why there was no train from the east to Calgary on Friday morning.

"The regular passenger train going east last night was held at Seviel, 14 miles east of this town, until 4 o'clock this morning, while the bridge gang completed the work of repairing the trestle bridge over the upper portion of Moose Lake. It was thought safe enough at four o'clock to allow the passenger train to cross.

The engine, No. 828, which is one of the latest imported, together with a car load of fish, crashed through the structure, taking Engineer W. Johnson of this place, and W. Knott, his fireman, to watery graves. The balance of the train very fortunately stopped on the track, thus averting a great catastrophe.

The accident, as far as can be learned, was due to the slipping of the trestle.
The company have been trying to fill in for this some time but there seems to be no bottom to the lake. There was originally from 60 to 90 feet of water at the bridge.

Engineer Johnson, who lost his life at his post of duty, was one of the oldest and most trustworthy servants of the C. P. R. Co., having been running upwards of 22 years, and never at the bridge.

SMALL POX AT REGINA

It seems to be particularly hard to enforce the health by-law at Regina. Not long ago a citizen of that town entertained some of his friends at his residence when one of his family was ill with a contagious disease. The health officers remained inactive and nothing was done to enforce the quarantine rules until the local press took the matter up and exposed the state of affairs in no uncertain manner. This lesson taught by the press does not seem to have been sufficient, for rank carelessness of the health officers in the performance of their duties may now be the cause of a general epidemic of smallpox in that town. The Regina Standard lays bare the true facts of the case in its usual forcible style, as follows: "The C. P. R. imported a car of smallpox here a day or two ago and left it standing opposite the depot. Two brakemen and a conductor are affected. This morning they were sunning themselves on a flat car and it is said that they came down town and bought supplies yesterday. They are surrounded by scores of workmen and their presence so near the station is a public menace. The local authorities as usual will doubtless make a big splutter when the epidemic becomes general. Why was that car of smallpox deliberately pulled in here from Moose Jaw? And why was it not at once pulled out to a siding and placed under Mount Royal Police surveillance? The conditions as they exist this morning are a disgrace to the company and to the civic authorities of this town."

GOOD ROADS

The following article appears in a recent issue of the Red Deer Advocate. Right now is the time for overseers to make creditable records in road-making. The conditions at present are so favorable that labor and money expended will give most gratifying results. Experience has revealed the requirements during past wet seasons, and now the work can be done upon the "bad places" with comparatively little inconvenience and expense. Labor and outlay will accomplish ten times as much under existing circumstances as when the soil was saturated and submerged. Farmers can now respond to calls upon their services with as little interference with their farm-work as ever. This should be a record year for road-making. Let everyone try to make it so. Men's mind a few days extra work when there is such a good chance. Let it be a matter of personal pride and ambition for each farmer to have a good road in front of his own farm. A well-graded road along a piece of land adds more to the commercial value of that place than the same amount of work inside the fence—yes, many times over. How some farmers can be content with the shocking approaches to their own premises no person can tell. The public road leading to a farm is one of the most important factors in calculating the value of the land. The man who time and again for years goes in and out over the loose poles at a mud hole or across a creek scarcely a yard wide ought to be ashamed of himself. A day or two's work is legged by him to make the rough places smooth in front of his own farm, and so no jolts his bones, strains his horses and rocks his wagon waiting for the district to remedy it. He doesn't seem to notice that he is the greatest sufferer, and the public can stand it if he can. Let there be a laudable rivalry amongst our individual farmers to have good roads in front of their own places. Be assured nothing can be done that will pay better in comfort to yourself and family, in greater service from your teams, and in enhanced value to the farm itself. A favorable season such as the present gives a grand chance to people that are not too mean to live to improve matters in this respect, and so and by, we shall be able to pick up the thrifty and progressive farmers by the approaches to their places. So don't stand round waiting for the overseer to do something. Do it yourself. Then your neighbor may catch the spirit and it may extend to the whole settlement, which means more to you and prosperity to all. Don't be an Indian—but a white man.

Traveled From Winnipeg

An illustration of the many distressing cases constantly coming before the management of the Free Hospital for Consumptives at Gravenhurst is in point this week. A week since, the secretary at the head office in Toronto through whom all applications should properly be made, received a long-distance telephone message from the physician-in-charge at Gravenhurst saying that a mother, with two daughters, both of whom were afflicted with consumption, had presented themselves at the doors of the Free Hospital, hoping to be at once admitted.

One daughter has the trouble only in a slight degree, and from a medical point of view is admissible as soon as room can be made. The other has the disease in a more acute condition, and will need to take immediate rest until it becomes somewhat quiescent. The family are poor, their railway fares having been paid by a friend. The mother has been given employment on the domestic staff of the hospital, and the daughters will board in town until there are vacant beds in the hospital to admit them. They came all this distance poverty-stricken, but in the belief that somehow they would manage to get admission to the institution.

Want of money is the only thing the trustees tell us, that is preventing the increase of accommodation beyond the eighty patients already provided for. Up to the present no one has been refused admission on account of his or her poverty, but we are told that the want of funds is preventing the Trustees from providing the increased accommodation needed. Indeed, a heavy burden of debt is now pressing upon them and must be promptly met if this work is to be carried on.

Contributions may be sent to Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Kt., 4 Lamport Ave., or Mr. W. J. Gage, 54 Front Street West, Toronto.

NORTHERN ALBERTA

The following letter appears in a recent issue of a South Dakota newspaper.

I Calmar, A. Berts, Canada.

Dear Sir:

As I promised to write to you when I left Orono for Alberta, Canada, last spring, I will now let you know that my brother Herman and I are getting along well and are in the best of health and hope you are all the same. I will give you a description of this great country of Northern Alberta, Canada, or as much as I know of it by this time. We arrived at Leduc last spring on the 26th of April and like it fine in every way so far. It took us just ten days to get to Leduc from Chamberlain on the "Red". The farmers had been seeding about two weeks when we got here. We had a good crop last year. Wheat went from 25 to 40 bushels to the acre, oats from 40 to 60, and potatoes from 100 to 200 bushels to the acre. The old settlers say it was only about a half crop on account of it being a little too wet last spring. The land here is the most productive and crops more certain than any place I ever saw and I believe it is the easiest new country for a poor man to make a start, and I have lived in Minnesota, South Dakota and other states. Now for vegetables, beets, carrots, parsnips, onions, cabbage and potatoes. I think it beats the world. There's an abundance of good soft coal, six kinds of wood for fuel, also plenty of tamarack and spruce timber for building and fencing, and plenty of good springs with running water 12 months round, and it is as soft as rain water. For wild fruit I never saw the like; strawberries and raspberries, high and low bush cranberries, gooseberries, black currants, and two varieties of blueberries, grow plentifully almost everywhere. The wild flowers are beautiful; large red lilies are as common as the daisies, bluebells and numberless purple flowers and the wild roses grow on tall bushes; deep tame ones, from a pale pink to a deep red shade. The climate is fine and very beautiful, and the sun shines nearly every day, nice, bright, and warm and no wind to drift the snow, where it falls it lies, but we had some cold snaps, for a few days it was 20 below zero, but a person doesn't feel the cold like he does in South Dakota. While the atmosphere is clear and dry, I think the Rocky Mountains, about 140 miles west of here, are a great protection from the wind. The most of the time we work outside from sunrise till sunset in our shirt sleeves and without mittens. Tonight at eleven o'clock it is bright and clear and 18 degrees above zero. We have not had any cold weather for the last two weeks and all of the old settlers call this a hard winter, then I would call a soft winter no winter at all, for I never saw as nice a winter in all my life as this has been, but I tell you it is hard for the people in Dakota, Minnesota and Nebraska to believe that there can be a country 1,500 or 2,000 miles northwest of them, where they get the most cold weather and wind from. That has a milder climate than they have, that have about one foot of snow yet and very good roads for sledging. Our horses and cattle are running out night and day, we have not fed them any hay yet and they are in fine condition, but we have plenty of hay. From the middle of June till the first of September the weather is warm and hot, from 70 to 85 degrees in the shade, but if a little breeze comes it is always fresh, and half an hour before sundown the dew begins to fall and in the morning the grass is as wet as if it had rained. We have no night frost till the third of September, and the second one was on the tenth of September. The people were digging their potatoes from the 10th to the 20th of October. Last fall the ground froze up about the 4th of November. There is plenty of game here, thousands of prairie chickens, a great many deer, some black bear and plenty of all kinds of fish in the lakes and streams. Herman and I are very busy this winter hauling logs to the saw mill. Two miles from here they saw roof lumber from $1 to $5 per board foot and ship lap at $1 a thousand feet. Well I will tell you something about our market: wheat sells from 50 to 58 cents per bushel; oats from 21 to 25; barley from 30 to 35. Butter sells at 20 cents a pound, eggs at 20 cents a dozen. Butter and eggs were worth 15 cents all last summer. Cows are worth from $30 to $45, horses from $20 to $25, hogs $2.00 1-2 per pound. Labor for man and team is very good. I will give you a description of the towns of Edmonton and Leduc. Edmonton is situated on the north bank of the Saskatchewan river and last winter when I was there for the first time there were 2,800 inhabitants and now there are 4,000, and about 400 new buildings have been erected, including some very fine brick blocks among which is a $30,000 schoolhouse and a $20,000 church. The city owns its own electric light plant, sewerage and waterworks. There are four banks and three more about to be built. The train crosses the river on a railroad and wagon bridge and there are now some five or six different railroad surveying outfits at work east, west and north of Edmonton surveying and locating railroads. There are two semi-weekly and one daily newspaper, two breweries, and one coal mine that puts out 2,000 tons of coal a day. In Leduc there are four general stores, one grocery, one jewelry, three real estate offices, two hotels, three blacksmith shops, one shot shop, one drug store, one meat market, one saddle shop, two pork packing houses, one flour mill, one lumber yard, one oil mill, two dairy staples, one public school, which cost $3,000, one hardware, two elevators, gasoline power, one laundry, one bank of $3,000,000 capital, four insurance agencies, one barbershop, Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Catholic churches, and a $1,500 German Lutheran church going to be built in the spring. Herman and I are located 22 miles west of Leduc and 28 miles southwest of Edmonton, on the N.W. of Sec. 14, T. 50, R. 1, W. 5th M. on the Saskatchewan river and at the mouth of Strawberry creek. There are no stones on the land here but there are a great many in the creek and river. There is gold in the sand all over this part of the river and they say a mac can wash out from $3 to $4 worth of gold in a day. The land is level and rolling and is a black loam from six inches to two feet deep and under it is yellow clay. My letter becomes long so I must close for this time with the advice to come and examine for yourself and see with your own eyes. My best regards to you all.

JOHN JACOB DIERCKS.
